Interesting State Notes for Local Circulation.

The State Board of Valuation and Assessment has taken final action fixing the value of whiskey for taxation at $10 a barrel.

J. N. Hawkins, a prominent Lexington merchant, was shot and robbed in that city late Saturday night. He died Sunday afternoon.

As the result of a schoolboys quarrel at Newport, Ky., Joseph Creelmann, aged eight, was stabbed to death by Eddie Armines, aged eleven.

Perry Whittedge, a Webster county farmer, committed suicide by taking morphine, because of remorse following a spree, and a night's imprisonment in jail at Dixon.

The report of the State Auditor shows that only $7,000 of the Good-better fund, after nearly two years has been spent, notwithstanding five trials of the men accused of the crime have been had.

The Court of Appeals, in deciding a Kenton county case, holds that political parties must give 40 days notice of a primary election, and that the entries of candidates can not be closed until fifteen days before the day set for holding it.

A woman standing in a telegraph office at Bowling Green was married to a man in Texas Saturday by wire. The regulation questions were asked and answered by telegraph. The woman will go to meet her husband soon.

Amber oil of the finest quality has been struck on Beaver creek, three miles from Glasgow, at a depth of 285 feet, by the Kentucky Oil Company. There is great excitement, and other wells are to be drilled as fast as the work can be done.

Suits against former State Auditor Sweeney and Treasurer Day, and the assignees of their official bonds were filed on behalf of the Commonwealth at Frankfort to recover $28,224.52 illegally spent to support the militia with which W. S. Taylor held the "Reign of Terror."

The scene of the troubles in Hopkins county, so far as public interest is concerned, has shifted to the Federal Court at Louisville where a motion to make permanent the temporary restraining order issued against the striking miners will be heard. The St. Bernard Mining Company will ask to be taken under the protection of the order.

Dixon, Ky., Dec. 7.—The case against J. D. Hardwick, a druggist, and E. A. Hurley, a painter, for burning Hardwick's drug store and Ramsey & Jackson's grocery and Hardwick's house on May 17, last is on trial. The regular panel was exhausted and a special venire is being summoned. Hurley confessed that he and Hardwick fired the house after oiling the floor and stairway.

Berry Howard, long a fugitive from justice, and defying arrest under an indictment charging complicity in the murder of Wm. Goebel, was arrested with his bodyguard in Pineville Saturday, by Sheriff Broughton, who got the drop on them. Howard was taken to Frankfort under a strong guard. Sheriff Broughton feared a rescue by Howard's friends and even obtained an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph Company to prevent the sending of dispatches, but of course it did not hold. Until train time Howard was kept at the sheriff's residence under the protection of 25 armed deputies.

We notice in an exchange that the Hon. Mr. Greenup, of Paducah, has offered for Congress in this district. Who is Greenup, and what has he ever done for the Democratic party? Ollie James has spent ten years of his life and all his money fighting the battles of his party, and the people of the First appreciate him and don't intend to turn him down in his first ambition.—Princeton Banner.

Old Santa Claus Has Arrived In Marion and Established Headquarters AT HEARIN'S!

And brought with him the largest, prettiest and best selected stock of Christmas goods ever seen in Southern Kentucky, and requested us to say to you not to buy until you look through our stock, and he also said for you to NEVER mark down a price mark on a Christmas present if the mark does not indicate that you are properly extravagant, buy at Hearin's and they will know you got the best for the least money.

NEVER tell your little boy there is no Santa Claus, but bring him to our show window and let him see for himself and then come in and make his heart glad by buying him a nice Christmas present.

NEVER buy more Christmas presents than you can afford, but buy from us and you can afford a great many for a small amount of cash.

NEVER give a minister a pair of slippers if there is a small boy in the family. Small boys like to be happy on Christmas—not miserable, so buy something nice at Hearin's for him.

NEVER ask a girl for a kiss when she is under the mistletoe—take it, and if she gets huffy come to Hearin's and buy her a nice present and all will be right again.

NEVER give your husband a box of cigars, give him one of those nice baskets put up at Hearin's and part of it may come your way.

NEVER get mixed up and send your girl the present she gave you last year, but come to Hearin's and buy her a nice present for less than others cost them.

NEVER warn a woman she is standing under the mistletoe; if she is homely she will be your enemy for life, if she is pretty and smart she will tell you and not without reason that you are foolish not to go to Hearin's and look through their stock before you buy, for they have as near everything as you ever saw in one house.

And boys you know your girl says every Christmas Tom Hearin puts up the nicest baskets she ever saw. Be sure and buy from him.

And husbands how often has your wives told you that the best of everything in the grocery line comes from Hearin's.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Senator Hearst today introduced a bill for the protection of the president of the United States. It provides that if any one should kill the president, or shall make an attempt upon the life of the president, he shall be punished with death. Any person who shall counsel or advise the killing of the president shall be imprisoned twenty years, and any person who shall aid the escape of any person concerned in the killing or concealing the killing of the president shall be punished equally as an accomplice.

Prairie du Sac, Wis., Dec. 6.—Sixty-five persons were poisoned at a wedding feast at the home of John Mulky, at West Point, near this place. It is believed there was poison in the coffee. Physicians were summoned from Led, and after several hours work hope was given that all would recover. Some of the coffee has been sent to a chemist to be examined.

There are 51 republicans, 26 democrats, and 9 others in the United States senate—making a total of 86 members.

There are four vacancies which, when filled, will make a total of 90 members.

In the House of Representatives there are 187 republicans, 161 democrats and all others 8, making a total of 356, with only one vacancy, which when filled will make a total of 357 members.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Representative Henry, of Texas, today introduced a bill which, if passed will bring about the extradition of Taylor and Finley. It provides that when the governor of a State shall properly certify the affidavit or indictment upon which a fugitive is charged and demand his arrest and surrender, the governor upon whom the demand is made must take the instrument as conclusive and give up the criminal. The bill is mandatory and under its provisions Gov. Durbin would have to give up both Taylor and Finley.

At this issue of the Press we announce Hon. Ollie M. James as candidate for congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. James is so well known in the Democracy of the district, and the State, that an introduction through the medium of the Press seems unnecessary, but so earnestly, faithfully and ably has he advocated the tenets of Democracy, and so valiantly defended its organization against the onslaughts of the foe, that it is a pleasure to refer to his services.

Before the law sanctioned his refuge, he was upon the stump, advocating the cause of his party, and from the years of his minority until the last campaign there has not been a hard fight in which he stalwart form and defiant voice of this brilliant orator has not been seen and heard. He has not only been upon the scene in his own district, or this end of the State, but the Bluegrass and Mountains have cheered him with wild enthusiasm as he presented the cause of his own party and smitten the enemy. Every congressional district in the State has called for his services when the little waxed warm, and he has responded to every call. He made speeches in the campaign of 1898 and 1899 than any other Democrat in Kentucky, and in the late, bitter struggle of last year, when the hope of Kentucky Democracy hung in the balance, and the State committee looked over the field for its strongest and best to stir the party, rank and file, to heroic effort, it did not turn to the Ashland district but to the Western Kentucky and to the Old Gibraltar district and introduced Hon. Ollie M. James, one of the highest and brainiest Democrats in the State was in Clinton yesterday, and while here he stalked majestically into the News office and ordered the paper sent to him in Marion, Crittenden county. CRITTENDEN'S ORATOR, HON. OLLIE M. JAMES, ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS.

HON. OLLIE M. JAMES.

In this issue of the Press we announce Hon. Ollie M. James as a candidate for congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. James is so well known to the Democracy of the district, and the State, that an introduction through the medium of the Press seems unnecessary, but so earnestly, faithfully and ably has he advocated the tenets of Democracy, and so valiantly defended its organization against the onslaughts of the foe, that it is a pleasure to refer to his services.

Ollie M. James, one of the highest, best and brainiest Democrats in the State was in Clinton yesterday, and while here he stalked majestically into the News office and ordered the paper sent to him at Marion, Crittenden county. Mr. James is a candidate for congress from this district, and the man who beats him can boast that he beat the biggest man in this section of the country, the Rev. D. H. Fields excepted.—Hickman News.

itively selected Mr. James to accompany our brilliant young governor and standard-bearer, and it is conceded that a more brilliant campaign than that made by Beckham and James never found place in this history of politics in this State.

He has met in joint debate the ablest of the party opponents and never lost a battle; as an orator on the hustings he is without a peer.

Not only on the stump has his services been distinguished, but in council he has been counted sagacious, and has been honored in this field. He has been trusted by the party with its most honorable positions. As chairman of the Kentucky delegation in the great Chicago convention, bearing the banner of his State in the celebrated rally of the standards about Bryan; as chairman of the State convention in 1900, when he set the convention wild with his simile of Gov. Goebel and Taylor, he served with marked ability.

He is a great reader, a close student, a fine lawyer, and, as a member of congress, would at once take high rank, achieving a national reputation—one that not only would his district and State appreciate, but one that the South would point to with pride. We believe the Democracy of this district is too loyal to turn down the man who has so faithfully and efficiently advocated its doctrines and too grateful to cast aside those made poor by their allegiance to and love for its cause.

If superior party service, ability and earnest, unswerving devotion to the rights of the people stand for anything, Ollie James should be given this nomination without opposition.

We notice in an exchange that the Hon. Mr. Greenup, of Paducah, has offered for Congress in this district. Who is Greenup, and what has he ever done for the Democratic party? Ollie James has spent ten years of his life and all his money fighting the battles of his party, and the people of the First appreciate him and don't intend to turn him down in his first ambition.—Princeton Banner.

A bold attempt was made to rescue Berry Howard before the train left Pineville Saturday night, but it was defeated by the courage of sheriff Broughton. Conductor Dauby and Engineer Langan, and Howard was safely delivered at Frankfort. Howard says he evaded arrest because he could not be assured of bond. It was reported in Frankfort that Howard might be a witness, either for the Commonwealth or defense, in the approaching trial of Jim Howard.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 7.—There is still much talk here over the incident which developed when county judge Dan Moore was asked to dine with Jailer Lawrence at his residence adjoining the jail. When he arrived there were seated at the dinner table Jim Howard and wife, Caleb Powers and a woman friend of Powers. The judge was surprised to see such liberties allowed Howard and Powers but considered the matter beyond his jurisdiction. An effort was made to keep the matter quiet but it became public and the jailer is seriously condemned for his action. It will probably result in an order to the jailer for stricter confinement for the prisoners and a rule forbidding all visitors to them, except their relatives and attorneys.

THAT POISON VIRUS.

What the Doctors Have to Say About the Deaths at Camden.

MARION, Ky., Nov. 28, 1901.—City Health Officer, Camben, N. J.:

My Dear Doctor: There was an article published in our local paper yesterday, stating that a number of deaths had occurred in your city as a result of vaccination, and as we have smallpox in our midst and are meeting with some resistance in getting our people vaccinated, this publication comes at a time when the sensationalist takes advantage of every straw that the wind blows his way; so you will please give me the facts in the case and we will duly appreciate same.

Yours truly,
T. Atchison Frazer,
President Board of Health.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 30.—T. A. Frazer, M. D., Marion, Ky.:

Dear Sir: Yours at hand. It is true we have had some cases of tetanus in our city. We have just finished a report upon the subject which will mail you later. However, we can say the tetanus here was not caused in any way from vaccination, other than causing an open sore on the arm. Smallpox can only be stamped out by isolation and vaccination.

Respectfully,
Harry H. Davis, Pres't

Personal.

We must remind you that what you owe us is a long time due and ask you for a prompt settlement. We need the money to enable us to meet our obligations and insist that you give the matter prompt attention. We shall expect you to do this. Please do not disappoint us. It is very important.

AN ANGRY COW.

A Lively Row with a Very Dangerous Animal.

Burgin, Ky., Dec. 8.—Harvey Vandivier, Mercer county's workhouse keeper, and his wife, had a terrible battle with an enraged cow, in which both came near losing their lives. Mrs. Vandivier and her husband had gone to the barn to milk and had just finished when he heard the screams of his wife and ran out. The sight that met his eyes is one that he will likely remember to his dying day. The enraged cow had knocked his wife down and was goring her; the husband rushed in and grasped the animal by the horns and attempted to pull her away from his wife, when the brute turned its attention to him, tossing about thirty feet. Dazed, but not daunted, he again laid hold of the animal and by an almost superhuman effort he succeeded in overcoming the brute until his wife could escape.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly illusion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion, or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at H. K. Brought from Alaska by Supposed Dead Man.

Marion, Ind., Dec. 8.—William Boyd, who was mourned as dead as dead, returned from the Klondike today with $60,000. When the stories of the large gold deposits in the Klondike reached the States he procured an outfit and went to Dawson, and as nothing was heard from him it was supposed he had perished. During his absence his wife was compelled to work as a servant in a hotel to support herself and daughter. She can now live in comfort and luxury.

THE PRIDE OF HEROES.

Many soldiers of the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for burns, scalds, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions, and piles. 25c at Woods'.

Murdering the Innocents.

The death rate among the children confined in the British concentration camps in South Africa is 433 of every thousand. This means that during the months of June, July, August and September of the present year 5,200 children died in these camps. Miss Emily Hobhouse, the young English woman who went to South Africa to nurse the sick and made these figures known, has been banished by order of Joseph Chamberlain. The annual death rate of children in London is 18 per thousand. Despite the efforts of the British authorities the fact about the South African situation are becoming known and the civilized world stands aghast at the accumulated horrors. And this great republic, which has never before hesitated to express sympathy for all people struggling for their rights, must not interfere although it may allow the British agents to visit this republic and purchase munitions of war.—The Commonwealth.

The Reciprocity Treaties of the United States

The History of the Policy That Is Now Agitating the Country Dates from 1850.

A SUBJECT of frequent agitation at the present time is that of reciprocity. The term has come to be so familiar to the newspaper and magazine reader that he has ceased to wonder about it or give it any special thought, but this subject has to do with the intricate subject of national tariff, and therefore exceedingly dry and uninteresting. But as the United States by its trade strikes attains greater commercial and industrial importance, this matter of reciprocity will come more persistently to the fore, and sustain a close relation to the advancement and development of the nation. That policy which was first considered much in the light of pleasant tariff variation, and under James K. Polk was developed and its possibilities shown by his statesman-like handling, is destined in the judgment of its ardent supporters, to become a national necessity, for two main reasons.

First, there are some duties embraced in the present tariff which are no longer necessary for the existence of the industries for whose protection they were imposed. Second, many of our industries have reached such a stage of development that the home market alone cannot absorb their products, and consequently new outlets are necessary for their continuous operation and steady employment of their operatives.

And, lastly, what is reciprocity? It is the granting by one country of equal privileges of commercial intercourse to the people of the countries concerned.

The first treaty of the kind was made with Canada, in 1854, continuing in force until 1896. Since the date of the signing of this first reciprocity treaty, trade agreements have existed with the Hawaiian Islands, Brazil, San Domingo, British West Indies, Salvador, Nicaragua, Honduras, Guatemala, Cuba and Porto Rico, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Switzerland, France, Portugal and Italy. The treaties with the last three named countries are a special agreement with Germany are still in force. Treaties with the following countries, signed in 1899 are still pending, having yet to be ratified by congress: British West Indies, Argentina, France, Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Ecuador. The following table shows the full list of reciprocity agreements and treaties which the United States has made and put into operation since 1850:

on wool, hides, butter, cheese, preserved meats, fruits and vegetables, cotton manufactures, iron and steel manufactures, lumber, rubber, wood manufactures, wagons and carriages, and manufactures of rubber.

Italy, Porto Rico, Nicaragua, Honduras, Guatemala, Salvador and Dominican Republic. The free admission of metals, fish, wool, for cooperation and building, wagons, carts, cars for railways, sewing machines, manufactures of iron and steel, oats and forage, and numerous other articles; also a reduced rate of duty on wheat, flour and many manufactured articles.

Germany and Austria-Hungary. The free admission of brain tins, feathers, hoes and skins, and tan bark, also a large list of articles at a reduced rate of duty.

The agreement with France gave to the United States the minimum tariff rates on canned and prepared meats, also for hops, timber and lumber, and the United States, in turn, gave reduced rates on various manufactures, still wines and portwines. Similar agreements were also made in the same year with Germany, Portugal, and Italy. All of the recent agreements with France, Germany, Portugal and Italy are now in existence.

Mr. John A. Kasson, of Iowa, special commissioner of the United States to negotiate reciprocity treaties with other countries, and through whose efforts all the pending treaties were framed, resigned his commission when congress failed to ratify the treaties negotiated, but at the earnest solicitation of President McKinley, he finally consented to retain his commission, but refused to accept the salary of his position while the treaties remained unratified.

The Scientific Production of a laxative of known value and distinctive action is rapidly growing in public favor, along with the many other material improvements of the age. The many must understand quite clearly, that in order to meet the above conditions a laxative should be wholly free from every objectionable quality or substance, with its component parts simple and wholesome and it should act pleasantly and gently without disturbing the natural functions in any way. The laxative which fulfills most perfectly the requirements, in the highest degree, is

The sale of millions of bottles annually for many years past, and the universal satisfaction which it has given confirm the claim we make, that it possesses the qualities which commend it to public favor.

Its Excellence

is due to the originality and simplicity of the combination and also to the method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and which ensures that perfect purity and uniformity of product essential to the ideal home laxative. In order to get

"WHAR DEW I CUM IN?"

(Being the Soliloquy of a Farmer on the Free Raw Sugar Question.)

Thar's a mighty lot er talkin' about farmers 'n thar rights, 'N the wonderful prosperity thet beet growin' invites. Thar's er heap of foolish crowin' 'n the "beats" begin ter shout 'N holler fer the Tariff ter keep free raw sugar out. But I notis thet the beet-producin' farms are very few. An' the farmers through the country aint got much ef it ter dew. The hull land aint a-raisin' beets, 'n aint goin' ter begin. Beet growin' right fer sum, I guess—but, whar dew I cum in?

The farmer gits four dollars now fer every ton o' beets—A hansum price, I must allow—but hidin' sum deceits. Beet sugar manyfacturers admit as they hev found Thet "granulated" costs 'em aunthin' like tew cents a pound. In fact thet leaves a profit on which they'd greatly thrive—And—if it kin be sold fer three, why should we pay 'em FIVE? It seems ter me es thet's a game thet's mighty like a skin—But—if thar's any benefit—waal—whar dew I cum in?

When Uncle Sam's in want o' cash we're glad ter help him out, 'N we'll stand all the taxes thet are needed, never doubt, But when his pocket-book's well lined an' nary cent he lacks, Et seems ter me his duty's ter repeal thet sugar tax. Them fellers wot is interested sez it's to protect The beet-producin' farmer thet the duty they collect, But I guess thet explanation es a little bit too thin—The sugar maker,—he's all right;—but—whar dew we cum in?

Take off raw sugar duty an' the price will quickly fall, To everybody's benefit, fer sugar's used by all. The poor will bless the Government thet placed it in thar reach—('N millions of our citizens free sugar now beseech) The dealer 'll be delighted—less expenditure fer him—More demand 'n bigger profits—which at present are but slim. An' the farmer 'll be as well paid as he ever yet has been—But he'll buy his sugar cheaper—thet's whar he an' I'll cum in.

Now, whar's the sense er reason of the sugar tax to-day, When our treasury's a-hulgin' an' we hev no debts ter pay? The duty on raw sugar's Fifty million every year—An' the people's got ter pay it—thet's a fact thet's very clear. Fifty million! Great Jerusha! Ter protect beet magnates, too, Why should they tax ALB the people—just ter help a scattered FEW? And the FEW? Beet-sugar MAKERS! I Don't it really seem a sin Thut ter help an' fill thar coffers? Whar dew you an' I cum in?

The farmer growin' beets hes got a contract price fer years,—Free raw sugar wouldn't hurt him, an' of it he has no fears, But mebbe, like myself—he's also growin' fruit so nice—Ter preserve it—at a profit—he needs sugar—at a price! The repealing of the duty, surely cuts the price in two—Thet'll make a mighty difference, neighbor, both ter me an' you! Let the sugar manyfacturer make such profits as he kin—Ter him it may seem right enuff—but whar dew I cum in?

An' I aint agoin' ter swallow all the arguments they shout Thet the farmers need protection—an' must bar raw sugar out. Common sense es plainly showin' thet the people in the land Want raw sugar free in future—an' its freedom will demand. 'Tis a tax no longer needed—hateful to the public view,—Taxin' millions of our people to enrich a favored few. They can't blind me any longer with the foolish yarns they spin,—While they're busy makin' money—whar dew you an' I cum in?

I'm agoin' ter keep on hustlin', talkin', pleadin' with my friends,—Aint no sense in lettin' other gains thar selfish privet ends. I'm agoin' ter write tomorrow to my Congressman 'nd say 'Thet he oughter do his best ter kill that tax without delay! Feller-farmers, do your utmost—whether you grow beets or not—To repeal the tax on sugar—you can but improve your lot! Cheaper sugar helps your pocket, greater blessings you can win—When we've three-cent granulated—that's whar you an' I cum in!

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce

OLLIE M. JAMES

a candidate to represent the First District of Kentucky in Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Corn and Populists seem to be scarce everywhere this year.

The electric light company ought to organize under the laws of Vermont, and then that dynamo will be good.

In their address to patrons the electric light company will probably advise the keeping of a strong battery of coal oil lamps or tallow candles as a reserve force.

It is announced that ex-governor Bradley is going after collector Ed Franks' official scalp. The governor should bear in mind that Ed is a Crittenden county Republican and their scalps are 'dog-gone' hard to get this year.

Because we had a little flurry about smallpox out in one corner of the woods pasture some two weeks ago, is no reason why we should feel that we have a monopoly on this cosmopolitan pest. Paducah had a case in a public school last week.

Booker Washington, colored, found all the hotels in Springfield, Mass., "crowded" when he applied for a night's lodging. The old blue back spelling book, a product of our late friend, Noah Webster, has gone out of date, but that little tale about the gored ox is still mighty good reading for the politicians of Webster's native State.

The teachers will be interested to know that on Monday the State Auditor signed the biggest warrant issued by that department of the government for years. It was for $800,000 and is to be paid to the teachers of the State, being the second 40 per cent of the school per capita due. Hence the teachers may look for their beloved Santa Claus to sweep down pretty soon in the shape of a check.

Mr. Nation, the husband of the "joint smasher," has been divorced, the court untying the marital knot upon the ground of "gross neglect of duty." The woman who has the nerve to go habitually on the war path with a hatchet is likely to have the jaw for belligerent business at home, and in this case the divorce is justifiable.

The newspapers have announced that the court of enquiry has found Admiral Schley guilty of five of the charges against him. Admiral Dewey says the papers know nothing about it. The Admiral's record as a manipulator of firearms inclines us to say that he is telling the truth, and if there is a lie out the other fellows are responsible for it.

Col. J. Henry Powell, once the Commonwealth's Attorney in this district, was last week inaugurated as mayor of the city of Henderson. His many friends in this section of his old bailiwick are gratified at this mark of esteem shown by his home friends, whose love and respect for the genial, eloquent man can scarce be deeper and broader than that of his old constituency in Crittenden.

Minnesota's governor and State railroad commission still have their feathers turned the wrong way and threaten to stand across the greedy path of the great railroad combination of the northwest. When the combine gets up steam these gamecocks will go the way of the rest of the earth. Those who attack aggregated capital, no matter how just their cause, are pretty sure to get hit with a thunderbolt.

The law prohibiting Chinese immigration expires in 1902, and its reinvestment, with modifications, will be one of the important issues for the present session of congress. If the Chinaman adapted himself to our institutions and became a part and parcel of the country, there would be no patriotic reason for excluding him, but he remains always a Chinaman, imbibing nothing that is American, hence a law restricting his coming is not unamerican.

Vice President Kit Barnaby, who is after the St. Bernard Coal Company of Delaware, was formerly a Crittenden county man; he is a son of the pioneer coal merchant and coal miner of this county. Old Kit was an Englishman, who served his country in the Crimean war, and other members of the family saw service in the "Thirty Years War." Young Kit is a "chip off the old block," and his Delaware friends may take notice that he comes of fighting stock, and we never heard of them using any but legitimate means, either in war or business.

The St. Bernard Coal Company of Earlinton, has surrendered its Kentucky charter and organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. This is the company against which the union labor organization is directing its fight in Hopkins county, and the movement of the company is for the purpose of invoking the aid of the Federal courts in the fight. The State and county authorities evidently have not given the company the aid it wants, and now Uncle Sam is to be called upon. Uncle Sam is getting to be a mighty big man, and the larger he grows the greater the demand for him, and by and by he will be the whole thing and the worry and expense of local affairs will be done away with.

One of the most flourishing institutions of our government is the national bank. According to the report of the controller of the currency, there are 4,274 national banking associations in existence. Their resources are placed at $5,685,347,294.96, which means that these organizations control a sum equal to $6,000 for every man, woman and child in the country. The banks own government bonds to the amount of $444,376,460; if these bonds, which represent the indebtedness of the people, were pro rated among the inhabitants of the country, each would owe the banks about $4.50. Each dollar of this sum is drawing interest and the people are paying this interest to the holders of these bonds. For each dollar thus held in bonds the banks are authorized to issue their own currency, or national bank notes, and this money is loaned, and interest is likewise paid, on these loans.

On September 30 the government had deposited in these banks $101,408,774.93. A casual survey of these figures will inform even a novice that the national banker is ally of the government, and, when the whole system, with all its ramifications are understood, it will be seen that this patriotic ally is not without his revenue. To him the government is more than a protector who guards against the peculations of the strong, giving all an equal chance in the battle for the enjoyment of life, liberty and property, it is the goose that lays the golden egg.

A Life Sentence.

After deliberating from Saturday evening until Monday evening the jury in the Al Tumlin case at Eddyville, returned a verdict giving the defendant a life sentence to prison. Last summer Al Tumlin and Newton Riley, both of Kuttawa, were rooting at a ball game at Kuttawa, between a team from Eddyville and the Kuttawa club. Riley was howling for his home nine and Tumlin for Eddyville. Riley censured Tumlin for not helping his home team, and they became engaged in a quarrel that ended in a fight. After the game they shook hands and it was supposed the trouble was settled. After supper Riley was in a drug store conversing with friends when Tumlin walked in and said: "Riley, I am going to kill you," and fired two shots. Riley fell to the floor dead.

Riley was one of the most peaceable and highly respected young men of Kuttawa. He was about 20 years old. He was a nephew of Mr. Daniel Riley, a well known citizen of Marion. Tumlin, who has a family, was an employee of the I. C. railroad. Most people acquainted with the circumstances, thought he ought to be hanged, and will regard the verdict as too light for the crime committed.

The Voting Contest.

The old time drawing contests of the Press were always characterized by absolute fairness. Hundreds of people were interested in them for years, and we never heard a single complaint. The voting contest is going to be absolutely fair and impartial. The young lady receiving a plurality of votes will be given the handsome suit of furniture; every dollar paid on subscription gets four votes for the lady of your choice. The contest is spirited but good natured; renew your subscription and vote.

A Valuable Patent.

Mr. A. Dewey, the popular miller of this city, has obtained a valuable patent for improvements on automatic feed regulators for flouring mills.

The Supervisors.

The following were appointed by the court as tax supervisors for the year 1902, viz: W. B. Rankin, Geo. P. Wilson, L. W. Cruce, R. S. Threlkeld and Geo M. Yancey. They will meet the first Monday in January to discharge their duties.

Hardwick Trial.

Dr. J. D. Hardwick, of Dixon, was acquitted of the charge of arson in the Webster circuit court Monday. The case was watched with great interest. Hardwick was charged with burning his drugstore in Dixon in order to secure $5,000 insurance. The case was a hard fought one. Messrs. Ollie James, W. E. Bourland and Henson defended Hardwick. The jury was out several hours.

John Flanary Dead.

Mr. John Flanary, a young man of the Hebron neighborhood, died at his home Monday evening after several days illness of pneumonia. He was one of the best known young men of the county, and one of the most popular. Genial and sunny of temperament, affable and courteous in manner, warm and generous of heart, he was loved and respected by all who knew him. The burial takes place today at the Love graveyard, where he will be laid to rest by the side of his mother, who was buried only a few weeks ago.

County Court.

County court convened Monday.

The road cases of A. C. Brown, S. M. Asher, Geo T. Drury, John D. Worley, W. W. Pogue, J. T. DeHaven, were continued until next court.

T. M. and James A. Hill filed petitions to change road. The court appointed G. P. Wilson, T. Yandell and W. H. Bigham as overseers.

The sheriff's settlement was accepted and approved.

This was the last regular session of county court over which Judge Rochester will preside.

Mrs. Orme Entertains.

On Tuesday last the members of the "Naomi" were delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. H. Orme, at her home on East Bellville st. Though skies were lowering a goodly number were present. Lessons being laid aside for the evening the hostess appeared, armed with paper and pencil, to test "dull wits" in the contest, "What shall the harvest be?" and imitations of various authors. In the latter contest it was found that genius was present that would put to shame such authors as Julia Ward Howe and others.

The hostess then led the way to the dining room, which was a dream of beauty. American Beauty roses and ferns graced the center of the table, while around the edge was a rope of smilax, small bouillonaires of sweet violets were at each plate. After the serving of delightful refreshments the guests were shown over the beautiful new home of Mrs. Orme. It was the earnest wish of each club member that their charming hostess might live many years to enjoy her beautiful home.

"SHADOWS OF SIN,"

With its wealth of Elaborate Scenery, Wonderful Mechanical and Electrical Effects, Beautiful Costumes and a first class company of seventeen Artists of known ability.

OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT!

"Shadows of Sin."

"Shadows of Sin," the offering at the opera house, is one of the most picturesque of the scenic productions of the day. The scenes are laid in and around Sandy Hook Lighthouse, New York harbor. The first act is an exact reproduction of Sandy Hook by moonlight, beyond doubt the most realistic picture ever presented by a traveling company. The thrilling storm scene and saving of the famous City of Paris by the light house crew is conceded by all to be the acme of scenic effect. The characters are drawn from life, the plot is intensely interesting, and the comedy element pure and wholesome, while the costumes worn by the ladies are true creations of art.

The straight grade flour, Palmetto brand, and Snow Drift, is simply fine. Try it.

Tolu Mills.

"Midnight in Chinatown"

was the attraction at the opera house Friday evening. The play was produced under the greatest difficulties. At eight o'clock the electric lights were cut off all over the city, owing to an accident at the power house. It was impossible to use the electrical effects employed in the drama. Nevertheless the performance was first-class in every particular, and the audience was highly delighted. It was one of the best attractions we have had for some time. The inclement weather and the smallpox scare kept a good many away, but if the company comes this way again a crowded house will greet them.

CLOSING DAYS OF VOTING CONTEST.

The Press voting contest to determine the most popular young lady in Crittenden and Livingston counties is nearing a close. The race is most exciting. The fight seems to be between Miss Moore and Miss Nunn. The young ladies are almost equal in strength. Each has a large number of friends working valiantly. The two leaders have been about equal in strength since the second week of the contest. The standing of the contestants will be published in but one more issue of the Press. The last count before the close will be made Dec. 18th, after that the ballot box will not be opened until the close, Dec. 24. Miss Moore leads Miss Nunn this week by 25 votes.

Dr. Paris on "Germs."

EDITOR PRESS: Last week Dr. W. J. J. Paris did me the honor of replying to my little scrap, published in the Press two weeks ago. The doctor takes occasion in his reply to contemptuously insinuate that I have lied, which may or may not be in accordance with the eternal fitness of things.

The whole row occurred because I stated that a number of children had died in Camden, N. J., with lockjaw, supposedly caused by the use of impure vaccine virus. Dr. Paris argues that tetanus germs may have stood ready to jump in to the blood the moment such patient was vaccinated. A commission of Camden physicians swears it was caused by atmospheric influence. And thus, between a combination of "tetanus germs" and "atmospheric influence" it will readily be seen that these poor little waifs had no show whatever. But it is a somewhat remarkable fact that this "tetanus germ" and "atmospheric influence" combine only attacked those vaccinated and not the general community. It was a generous combine, a merciful combine.

I heartily concur with the doctor as to the necessity and beneficial effects of vaccination, and am glad that our citizens so generally and promptly yielded to the inevitable.

In closing his article Dr. Paris mildly insinuates that I virtually branded the entire medical profession of Marion as "ill-amphibious." This assertion is rather too broad. As a general thing there are not more than one or two of that class in a town the size of Marion.

In conclusion I earnestly invite the doctor to get his dictionary and "figger" out the difference between the words "epidemic" and "pandemic." Nemo.

HOW TO CURE COUGHS.

Mr. R. C. Gray, who lives near America, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best I ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for cough and never fails to cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the cough has developed, it will prove the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the cough remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as the symptoms appear. At R. F. Haynes'."

I. C. Gets Kentucky Western.

The Illinois Central railroad has bought the Kentucky Western railroad and its branch road, connecting with the Illinois Central at Blackford, Ky., and extending to Dixon, a distance of twenty miles. The road runs through coal and timber lands in Webster county.

Its positively guaranteed for colds, colds and lung troubles. Price 25c a bottle. Sold at R. F. Haynes'."

A POPLAR TREE

Produces 65,000 Shingles, 12 Squirrels, and Other Things

Big Sandy, Tenn., Dec. 8.—Mr. S. W. Busy, manager of a shingle machine at this place, tells and interesting story about a "Jumbo" poplar tree which he bought in Sixth district of this (Benton) county a few days ago. The tree cost him $10, and when cut and sawed made 65,000 shingles. It was hollow at the top and had one hundred pounds of honey, six muskrats and twelve squirrels inside of it.

Letter from Rev. G. M. Burnett.

SALT LICK, KY., Dec. 3.—Editor Press: If you will allow me a short space in your valuable paper I shall be pleased to write a little touching Salt Lick and vicinity.

We have been here about fourteen months, and during this period we have greatly enjoyed ourselves among a sociable, affable class of people.

Salt Lick is a little town of 800 population, situated on the C. and O. R. R. The town has one large stove factory, one planing mill, and seven or eight general stores. A great deal of oil has been found near here, and about five miles from town a large tank is in process of erection, which when completed will hold 55,000 barrels of oil; and the receiving tanks are to be erected here.

We have two railroads running into our town, and pikes leading out in four different directions.

As to our church I only have two churches, and I must say, it is one of the most convenient churches in Kentucky. We have a splendid parsonage of six rooms, and we are surrounded by plenty of good neighbors.

During last conference year we had 63 conversions and reclamations and something near forty accessions to the church. We paid about $100 on old indebtedness, and done considerable repairs on both church house and parsonage. I think I have one of the most spiritual churches in Eastern Kentucky, and we have a class of people who are willing to die on the battle field but will never surrender.

We are now in the midst of a revival in which we are expecting great things from God. While my health is not first-class this fall, I trust I may hold out to the end of the year.

As the Press unfolds itself each week before our vision, we almost imagine ourselves conversing with the people of Marion and looking into their faces. Our desires are to some day shake the hands of the Crittenden people again and to enjoy the friendly "chats" with many whom we learned to love.

We pray, as we have always done, that God may continue to lavish rich blessings upon all.

Yours respectfully,
G. M. Burnett.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boche's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages, and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds, and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at H. K. Woods & Co's drug store. Get Green's Special

If it is true as stated that many of the popular novels are the results of dreams had by the authors, in omnia must be terribly prevalent in literary circles.

An administration organ tells about the "savages" in Samur and then expresses the opinion that they are spurred to renewed hostility by reading the accounts of McKinley's assassination and receiving the idea that it "was the result of a revolution in the United States." Savages who read are a new product of imperialism.

The administration must not imagine that the public has forgotten Maclay, the famous "historian," who wrote down Admiral Schley as a coward. Maclay is reported to have said that if the decision of the court of inquiry is favorable to Schley, he will revise his "history." The American people are not interested in this "history" or its revision. They are, however, interested in the question, "Will the Administration permit Admiral Schley's detractor to remain in the navy department?"

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, for colds and influenza during the past four years, to our knowledge not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Those who have used it, in fact, are speaking of this remedy. "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the gripe in many cases as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery but also counteracts any tendency of the gripe to result in pneumonia. AVED HIS SON'S LIFE.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan county, says: "Our little son, five years old, had always been subject to croup, and we had the attacks been that we have feared many times he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we find that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as an adult. At Haynes'."

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature.
